

Broken Twigs: Farewell to Faerie Forest

Use the words in the list below to complete the sentences.

Created on TheTeachersCorner.net Fill-in-the-Blank Maker

1. Thick, foul-smelling fumes belched from an iron cauldron set in the middle of the eerie forest glade.
2. Twigs: a fairly common fae name, but this fairy was more temperamental than most.
3. For what felt like a lifetime, Twigs froze against the wall of her sanctuary.
4. Twigs thought she would never tire of the sight of the fairy dust cascading down into the hole like a gorgeous, iridescent waterfall.
5. Worker Fairies began to dig trenches ahead of the flames in an attempt to halt their advance.
6. Queen Iris had never looked so furious – her eyes glinted with anger and an immense sense of power that set her aside from the fairies over whom she ruled.
7. The root retracted, rewrapping itself around the tree trunk once more as this Silvamor continued to move as one with its brethren silently through the forest.
8. She calmed herself by searching for all the constellations that she knew, naming them aloud to feel less alone.
9. This stunning but deadly predator seemed to be an expert in weaving through the obstacles, and it was gaining on her.
10. The forest floor felt like sandpaper as the fairy was dragged behind the doe.
11. That was all she needed, as fairies and elves had been enemies for as long as she knew.
12. Fate had thrown them together, and all that mattered to her at that moment was that she was no longer all alone.
13. She turned to see one of her Silvamors approaching, and her eyes glinted fiercely in expectation of the news she was about to receive.
14. Underneath Twigs' name, she wrote the word Friendship and marked a little tick next to it.

temperamental Friendship news alone elves tire furious sandpaper foul-smelling Silvamor glinted predator power halt trenches constellations dragged brethren iridescent fairies stunning cauldron tick froze Fate